YOUR GIFTS MAKE

A World of Difference

We thank God for working through us to give hope and provide compassionate care that is "exceedingly, abundantly, beyond all that we can imagine or think."

Ephesians 3:20

The Golden Cross Offering dates back to the earliest days of church planting in America, and initially supported church-related hospitals and long-term healthcare facilities. In recent years, it has expanded to include a variety of ministries serving all ages across the denomination, with a focus on aiding those most in need.

In the Susquehanna Conference, the monies from this offering benefit the Benevolent Homes. Your support is critical to the continuing ministry provided to the young and the old who are served in Christ's name.

God works through your prayers and financial support in acts of mercy to bless the lives of individuals cared for in our Benevolent Homes at all ages and stages of life. Please give your gifts to continue this compassionate care that Paul refers to as "exceedingly, abundantly, beyond all that we can imagine or think."
