

CHILD ADVOCACY TRAINING EVENT
OCTOBER 14, 2017
GOOD SHEPHERD CHURCH, TYRONE

The Commission on Child Advocacy is continuing its Susquehanna Conference training events throughout the seven districts. Training events have been held in the Lewisburg, Scranton-Wilkes-Barre, and York Districts. The next event is slated for Good Shepherd Church in Tyrone, PA on Saturday, October 14th. The church is located between Altoona and State College. The first plenary session begins at 9AM on the 14th, preceded by registration and a continental breakfast starting at 8:30AM. The training event concludes no later than 4PM.

Registration material will be mailed to key contact persons in each church, with an emphasis particularly in the State College and Altoona District Churches, but the training event is open to the entire Conference. On-line registration information will be available soon.

The training event will include a keynote address, panel and plenary conversations and at least five seminars. All materials, advocacy group start-up information, seminars, break snacks, and the luncheon are included in the $35.00 registration fee. Continuing Education Certificates, .6 CEU's, are also provided.

For more information contact Rev. Ed Zeiders at ezeiders@susumc.org.