

What if...

generosity was the root and fruit of your church and congregations believed that when God gives a vision the resources will follow? (The Generous Church by Tom Berlin)*

fundraising was initiating a relationship instead of completing a transaction and you invited people to give instead of begging them? (A Spirituality of Fundraising by Henri Nouwen)*

you acted like John Wesley and became more vile to become more holy? (The Vile Practices of Church Leadership: Finance and Administration by Nate Berneking)*
