

Susquehanna Conference Seminar trip to:

The Church Center of the United Nations

February 4-7, 2018

777 United Nations Plaza, New York City

Violence, TERROR, and Peace

Connecting the Global and the Local

WHAT: Join colleagues and friends for a fun, educational trip to New York City and the Church Center of the United Nations. Learn about the global and local scope of violence and how we as followers of Christ and Methodists can build peace in our communities and around the world. Plus, evenings will be free for participants to explore and enjoy New York City!

WHEN: Pick-ups at First UMC, 604 Market St, Williamsport, PA 17701 at 2:00 p.m., from Paxton UMC, 3550 N Progress Ave., Harrisburg, PA 17110 at 4:20 p.m. and McDonald's at Lake Harmony Exit on Route 80 at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 4. Return schedule approximately McDonalds 5:30 p.m., Paxton UMC 7:35 p.m. and First UMC, Williamsport 10:00 p.m. on Wed February 7.

COST: Cost is $395. This includes Seminar fees, bus transportation and lodging (2 persons/room) at the Hotel Edison, 228 W 47th Street, New York, NY 10036 (just a block from Times Square) in New York City. Participants should bring money for metro transportation, meals, and cost of optional United Nations tour. (Single rooms add $150)
