

God's Calling Event for Laity!

Explore the Question: "God, are you calling me?"

Have you ever wondered, "God, are you calling me?" Have you ever wondered, "What is the difference between an ordained elder, an ordained deacon, a local pastor, and /or a certified lay minister?" Do you know the various certified ministries affirmed by the United Methodist Church?

You are invited to join us on Saturday, March 17, 2018 at Paxton United Methodist Church in Harrisburg for the "God's Calling Event" presented by the Enlistment & Interpretation Committee of the Susquehanna Conference of the Board of Ordained Ministry. This is a day apart for laity as together, we examine the ministry of the ordained elder, ordained deacon, local pastor and certified ministries of the church. This event will include information in regards to scholarship and grant availability, educational requirements, seminaries, and other pertinent information.

This is an exciting opportunity for those discerning a call to ministry. (If you are in the candidacy process this is a requirement for certification. This is also a requirement for those in the process of becoming a Certified Lay Minister.)

Enroll now by downloading the God's Calling brochure found on the front page of the conference website at www.susumc.org OR access the Board of Ordained Ministry website at scboom.org and go to "Resources," and click onto "God's Call Event." Contact Rev. Sandy Kraft at skraft@susumc.org for additional information.
