

Susquehanna Annual Conference Flying Dove Award

Purpose: To recognize a church that goes above and beyond in working for Peace with Justice in the annual conference

:One award will be given to the person or church that is striving to work for peace with justice in their community (does require a recommendation)

Given by: The annual conference Peace with Justice team

Receive: An artistic depiction of the flying dove and a certificate

Agency, local church, community organization or individual to be considered:

Name:

Phone:

e-mail:

Address:

Which of the Peace with Justice objectives does this project address? (Check one or more.)

Understanding and responding to violence and militarism and moving to reconciliation

Involve and develop leaders among United Methodists and the general public

Promote just policies to address poverty and restore communities

Support policies that promote economic justice and self-development

Please tell us about the purpose of the project/ project description:

Submit to PWJ Coordinator for SUSUMC, Rev. Michelle Bodle: mbodle@susmc.org