

Sample Social Media Kit for Peace with Justice Sunday

Date:

June 11th, 2017

Goal:

To engage United Methodists around our commitment to Peace with Justice as expressed in our Social Principles, Paragraph 165.c, "As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to love our enemies, seek justice, and serve as reconcilers of conflict.", as well as raise awareness for the Peace with Justice Sunday special offering.

Facebook Posts:

"The United Methodist Church believes that as disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to love our enemies, seek justice, and serve as reconcilers of conflict."

or

"Today is Peace with Justice Sunday. You can donate to ministries of Peace with Justice at: <https://donate.gcfa.org/FundDetails.aspx?ID=10000141000110003> Remember 50 percent of what is collected stays right here in our annual conference!"

or

Did you know that United Nations has proposed 17 sustainable development goals to be achieved by 2030 including zero hunger, quality education, and gender equality? Join us in seeking Peace with Justice!

Important Twitter Hashtags and Handles

#peacewithjustice

#UMC

@gbcsumc (General Board of Church and Society)

Tweets:

Today we celebrate #Peacewithjustice and proclaim that as Christians we love our enemies and seek justice! #UMC

The #UMC believes that as disciples we serve as reconcilers to conflict. #Peacewithjustice

It's Nat'l #Peacewithjustice Sunday. I gave. You can too at <https://donate.gcfa.org/FundDetails.aspx?ID=10000141000110003>

So glad @gbcsumc calls us to the work of #Peacewithjustice! #UMC Living Faith. Seeking Justice. Pursuing Peace.

Find out more about what the #UMC believes about #Peacewithjustice at <http://www.umcgiving.org/ministry-articles/peace-with-justice-sunday>

The #UMC wants to pursue reconciliation and peace. Your donation helps us to do that at <https://donate.gcfa.org/FundDetails.aspx?ID=10000141000110003>