2019 STUDY CHOICES

SPIRITUAL GROWTH STUDY: The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship

In Mark and Radical Discipleship, author Janet Wolf explores what it means to live a life of radical discipleship today using the Gospel of Mark as the foundation. Wolf explores the timeless issues of poverty, gender, justice, liberation, equality, and others using Mark as a guide. The stories of the women in Mark are a particular focus in this study and how, although often unnamed, they are prominent among Jesus' followers and in Mark's recounting of the gospel story.

SPECIAL STUDY: Women United For Change: 150 Years in Mission

United for Change by Ellen Blue is the first in a two-year study commemorating United Methodist Women's 150th anniversary in 2019. It will provide a historical survey of United Methodist Women and its predecessor organizations and amplify the voices that shaped the work through an overarching story of United Methodist Women changing the fact of mission. This study is about women who established vibrant societies to support mission. First organized in the United States, those societies sent missionaries overseas and later engaged in mission at home. Each was a heroine who was willing to stand over and against what her culture—and sometimes even her church—expected of her. Learning about the early female leaders who created what would become today's United Methodist Women can help us understand who they truly were beyond who we expected them to have been.

Youth Study: Who Do You Say That I Am? Meeting Jesus Through the Eyes of Mark

In "Who do you say that I am? Meeting Jesus Through the Eyes of Mark", Carolyn Poling guides youth through the Gospel of Mark, helping to define who Jesus is to them, who he says he is in scripture, and how this impacts how we live our lives.

The goal of this study is to help youth explore scripture in new ways so they can develop their own faith and put it into action. This is the mark of a true disciple.

Children's Study: Marked: A Mission Journey with Jesus

In "MARKED: A Mission Journey with Jesus" Rita Hays invites children to join Jesus on an exciting lifelong pilgrimage of discipleship and mission. Throughout the Gospel of Mark, Jesus engages with all types of people, especially individuals who find themselves on the margins of society. Jesus appears as an inclusive Savior, inviting children to practice discipleship by faith through positive decision-making.
