

Susquehanna Annual Conference Flying Dove Award

Purpose: To recognize a church or individual that goes above and beyond in working for Peace with Justice in the annual conference

One award will be given to the church or person that is striving to work for peace with justice in their community (does require a recommendation)

Given by: The annual conference Peace with Justice team

Receive: An artistic depiction of the flying dove and a certificate

Agency, local church, community organization or individual to be considered:

Name:

Phone:

e-mail:

Address:

Which of the Peace with Justice objectives does this project address? (Check one or more.)

- Understanding and responding to violence and militarism and moving to reconciliation
- Involve and develop leaders among United Methodists and the general public
- Promote just policies to address poverty and restore communities
- Support policies that promote economic justice and self-development

Please tell us about the purpose of the project/ project description:

Submit to PWJ Coordinator for SUSUMC, Rev. Dr. Lenore Hosier, via email at lhosier@susumc.org
Deadline: March 15, 2021