What others are saying about GROW:

“I hope to engage others wherever I can and share with all people the abundant love and hope, joy, and peace that Jesus has brought to me. So that together and independently we can shine the light of Christ into that which is dark and lonely. So that wherever we go, whatever we do, all those we meet will know the love of God.”

“As we heard so often in class, listening is very important in transformational leadership. Awareness and persuasion are two other important qualities. As a leader I must find opportunities for people to interact with one another more so than they do now.”

“I will share abundant Christian love by providing a positive why when encountering resistance to change.”
