

Nomination Form for the
"BISHOP D. FREDERICK WERTZ AWARD"

Do you know someone who:

- ... is a United Methodist (either lay or clergy)?
- ... has a history of exceptional service to the church?
- ... is generally under-recognized for their service?

Since 1980, Lycoming College has honored a conference lay person or clergy member who has rendered exceptional service to God through the Church. This award is given in honor of Bishop D. Frederick Wertz, who served as Lycoming's president from 1955 through 1968.

Past winners of the award demonstrate a wide array of types of service and include, among others, pastors, missionaries, program administrators, organists, camp workers, and secretaries.

Anyone may submit a nomination by filling out the following information form:
