

Susquehanna Annual Conference Flying Dove Award

Purpose: To recognize a church or individual that goes above and beyond in working for Peace with Justice in the annual conference One award will be given to the church or person that is striving to work for peace with justice in their community (does require a recommendation)

Given by: The Conference Board of Global Ministries
Receive: A framed Certificate of Recognition

Agency, local church, community organization or individual to be considered:

Name:

Phone:

e-mail:

Address:

Which of the Peace with Justice objectives does this project address? (Check one or more.)

- Understanding and responding to violence and militarism and moving to reconciliation
- Involve and develop leaders among United Methodists and the general public
- Promote just policies to address poverty and restore communities
- Support policies that promote economic justice and self-development

Please tell us about the purpose of the project/ project description:

Submit to Rev. Ryan Gephart via email at rgephart@susumc.org
Deadline: March 15, 2024