Workers' Compensation Information

The following information is being provided to you in compliance with 34 Pa. Code 121.3b:

1. The workers' compensation law provides wage loss and medical benefits to employees who cannot work, or who need medical care, because of a work-related injury.

2. Benefits are required to be paid by your employer when self-insured, or through insurance provided by your employer. Your employers is required to post the name of the company responsible for paying workers' compensation benefits at its primary place of business and at its sites of employment in a prominent and easily accessible place, including, without lamination, areas used for the treatment of injured employees or for the administration of first aid.

3. You should report immediately any injury or work-related illness to your employer.

4. Your benefits could be delayed or denied if you do not notify your employer.

5. If your claim is denied by your employer, you have the right to request a hearing before a workers' compensation judge.

6. The Bureau of Workers' Compensation cannot provide legal advice. However, you may contact the Bureau of Workers' Compensation for additional general information at:
